

PRE-K TODAY

“Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for he is good.” (Psalm 107:1)

Thanksgiving Week

Please check out the sign up sheet on our door to indicate which days your child will be here next week. Please note that POG will be closed November 23 and 24.

Please make sure your child has a jacket, hat, gloves for recess!!!

Letter Practice

This week our letters will be U and J.

November Reading Logs

Please continue to jot down your reading minutes. Send Reading Logs in on Mondays.

This Week: My Blessings

This week we will be talking about the many things we are grateful to have in our lives. We will be making a book about Our Blessings. We will be talking about Thanksgiving and the idea of traditions.

We are currently working on a new assessment required by the state. This is called PALS, the Phonological Awareness Literacy Screening. Each child will complete several subtests about letters and sounds. You will receive a report once all the assessments are completed.
